SHEPHERDSVILLE POOL
SUPERINTENDENT KEITH DAVIS

Bullitt County Superintendent Keith Davis, spoke to Fiscal Court reading the Shepherdsville Pool, inquiring what Fiscal Courts intentions where. If Fiscal Court has no intention of repairing the Shepherdsville Pool, Mr. Davis expressed that facility could be used by Bullitt Central High School athletics department, or another program within the school. County Attorney John Wooldridge informed Fiscal Court that the current agreement between Bullitt County Fiscal Court and the State, ties Fiscal Court to the pool. If Fiscal Court determines the Shepherdsville pool will not be reopened, both the County and the School Board will need to request relief from the current agreement from the State. Using the pool or pool facilities for anything other than specified in the original agreement would be in violation of the signed agreement.
