SPEAKER ZONING

Herb Hibbs spoke to the Court regarding Zoning Ordinance 23-12 for KY Land Holdings of Elizabethtown. He stated that the company bullied the neighborhood residents and did not complete their paperwork correctly when filing for this zoning change. He stated that it is fifty acres of land, and they are trying to cram eight to ten houses on only fifteen of those acres. He wanted to thank the Court for denying their zoning request at this time. He stated that it is disappointing when a big company sweeps in to create something and then leaves with flooding issues, and deteriorating roads.

ZONING ORDINANCE: FIRST READING
ORDINANCE #23-17

A zoning ordinance for property owned by Ronald and Kimberly McKnight, has been advertised for first reading and public hearing at this meeting. Planning and Zoning Director Charlie Spalding gave the following overview of the Planning Commission's hearing and recommendation on Docket #2023Z-23:

- Ordinance #23-17; Docket #2023Z-23; Ronald and Kimberly McKnight—an ordinance changing the zoning from Agricultural to R-1 Residential. The property in question is 12 acres, more or less, located at 123 South Downs Lane, in an unincorporated area of the county.

The Planning Commission recommended that the zoning change be approved based upon the fact that the requested zoning change is in agreement with the adopted Comprehensive Plan.

County Attorney, Tammy Baker, gave the first reading, in summary, of Ordinance #23-17 for the record, and a copy is on file at the County Clerk's Office.

Ronald McKnight spoke for Zoning Ordinance 23-17. He stated that he wants to use the eight acres on the back of his property to downsize his home. He stated that another neighboring resident has two residents on the property and there is only a drainage ditch on the back property he is wanting to build on.

Tim Gagel spoke against this zoning request and stated that every tract in the subdivision has twelve acres and does not want to see this change.

Eric Connelly spoke against this zoning request as well. He stated that there is agriculture surrounding this area and this applicant is the newest resident in the area and is trying to change that. He stated that there is a stream that runs onto the conservation property and this new build will disrupt that. He is also afraid that this will negatively affect his property value.

ORDINANCE #23-18

A zoning ordinance for property owned by Daniel and Kristina Hurt, has been advertised for first reading and public hearing at this meeting. Planning and Zoning Director Charlie Spalding gave the following overview of the Planning Commission's hearing and recommendation on Docket #2023Z-24:

- Ordinance #23-18; Docket #2023Z-24; Daniel and Kristina Hurt—an ordinance changing the zoning from Agricultural to R-1 Residential. The property in question is 9.662 acres, more or less, located at 2970 Ridge Road, in an unincorporated area of the county.

The Planning Commission recommended that the zoning change be approved based upon the fact that the requested zoning change is in agreement with the adopted Comprehensive Plan.

ORDINANCE #23-19

A zoning ordinance for property owned by Pikeland Farm Trust, Thomas H Pike Trustee, has been advertised for first reading and public hearing at this meeting. Planning and Zoning Director Charlie Spalding gave the following overview of the Planning Commission's hearing and recommendation on Docket #2023Z-28:

- Ordinance #23-19; Docket #2023Z-28; Pikeland Farm Trust, Thomas H Pike Trustee—an ordinance changing the zoning from Stream Reserve to R-1 Residential. The property in question is 5 acres, more or less, located at 622 Pikeland Way, in an unincorporated area of the county.

The Planning Commission recommended that the zoning change be approved based upon the fact that the requested zoning change is in agreement with the adopted Comprehensive Plan.

ORDINANCE #23-20

A zoning ordinance for property owned by Sharon Klosterman, has been advertised for first reading and public hearing at this meeting. Planning and Zoning Director Charlie Spalding gave the following overview of the Planning Commission's hearing and recommendation on Docket #2023Z-29:

- Ordinance #23-20; Docket #2023Z-29; Sharon Klosterman—an ordinance changing the zoning from Agricultural to B-2 Central Business. The property in question is 0.44 acres, more or less, located at 2195 North Preston Highway, in an unincorporated area of the county.

The Planning Commission recommended that the zoning change be denied based upon the fact that the requested zoning change is not in agreement with the adopted Comprehensive Plan.

County Attorney, Tammy Baker, gave the first reading, in summary, of Ordinance #23-20 for the record, and a copy is on file at the County Clerk's Office.

David Rasner, on behalf of his mother Sharon Klosterman, spoke in favor of this Zoning Request. He stated that they have a contract to put a plumbing business on the property. It is a small business of six employees and five trucks, and they would only be using the property to store materials as their home base. This property adjoins B-2 across the street and the two neighbors next to them. He has a letter of consent from the neighboring house for this property. Ratterman Plumbing stated that there will not be any signage, retail customers, or any large equipment stored on the property. The County Attorney suggested that the County could place restrictions on this zoning request if necessary.

Wayne Michaels spoke against this zoning request. He stated that this is a residential only area on that side of the highway, and he suggested to move to the other side where other businesses already are. He also questioned why the request was for B-2 Highway Business instead of I-L Light Industrial. He is concerned about what could happen to the property if they allow this change and they decide to sell and another business moves in.

Pat Knopp spoke against this zoning request. He stated that he is unsure of all the uncertainties regarding this change. This will affect traffic, all neighboring property values, and allow other businesses into the area.

Amy Hall spoke against this zoning request. She stated that she doesn't understand the need for commercial businesses to come to residential areas. She is also concerned about the safety of roadways with plumbing trucks in the area.

Zabenco Shaun spoke for this zoning request. He is an employee of Ratterman Plumbing and stated that this will be held only as a shop to store supplies that can be easily accessible in the area. He only goes to the shop twice a week, and most trucks just go straight to the jobs instead of reporting to the main office. They want to make the property look nice and upkept and just want to bring this closer to the county in which some employees already live.

Justin Freeman spoke for this zoning request. He is also an employee of Ratterman Plumbing and stated that they have not had any signage up for five years at their last rental property in Middletown. HE stated that he lives off of Zoneton Road and this will be easily accessible for the business. They will fix up the property to match other neighboring residences. He also stated that it is all commercial businesses leading up to that property, not residential.

ZONING ORDINANCE: FIRST READING ORDINANCE #23-21

A zoning ordinance for property owned by Derek Nalley, has been advertised for first reading and public hearing at this meeting. Planning and Zoning Charlie Spalding gave the following overview of the Planning Commission's hearing and recommendation on Docket #2023Z-30:

- Ordinance #23-21; Docket #2023Z-30; Derek Nalley—an ordinance changing the zoning from Agricultural to R-1 Residential. The property in question is 4.9 acres, more or less, located at Lot 3 Rambin Road, in an unincorporated area of the county.

The Planning Commission recommended that the zoning change be approved based upon the fact that the requested zoning change is in agreement with the adopted Comprehensive Plan.

County Attorney, Tammy Baker, gave the first reading, in summary, of Ordinance #23-21 for the record, and a copy is on file at the County Clerk's Office.

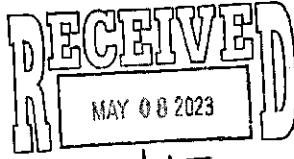

Derek Nalley spoke for this zoning request. He stated that he was here if the Court has any questions.
