SPEAKER
ALPHA MINISTRIES

Mike and Dawn Mudd, of Alpha Ministries, had their official ribbon cutting. They are a faith-based Men's Residential Recovery Center that offer six-to-twelve-month programs. They currently have 11 men currently being housed and offer a variety of resources to help them with education and job searches. Their goal is to be a resource within Bullitt County and offer assistance to women, children, and veterans as well. They are funded by donors, grants, and fundraisers.

SPEAKER
ALPHA MINISTRIES

Mark Weird, Associate Pastor and President of Alpha Ministries, spoke regarding future long-term goals. They currently host AA meetings three days a week and had a record number of participants for the County. He stated that they are always looking for different funding avenues to better the Recovery Center and the county.

SPEAKER
ALPHA MINISTRIES

David Raley stated that Alpha Ministries is needed here in the Shepherdsville area, and he has watched these men grow and God work in the community. He has been in AA for ten years and is currently working for the Road Department of Bullitt County and thankful God has worked miracles in his life. He stated that Alpha Ministries has a large vision to touch many lives, but they need the resources and funding to make that happen.

PRESENTATION
WINDSTREAM BUILD UPDATE

Stephanie Bell, of Windstream, gave a brief presentation on the Windstream Build update. The project from 2023 between the County and Windstream is now complete and offering 6,300 homes in Bullitt County with fiber internet. This was a 6.8-million-dollar partnership, where Bullitt County invested 2 million, and Windstream invested 4.8 million. This has been the fastest growing community thus far for Windstream and the constituents are excited for the opportunity to gain fiber internet. The Court thanked the team for their hard work and investment in Bullitt County.

PRESENTATION
KIPDA UPDATE

Chief Financial Officer Keith Griffee gave a KIPDA update to the Court. He stated that the Phase One Design is completed at the LJ Flood Pumping Station and Phase Two will begin later this year. They will also be offering a Community Snapshot that will offer a snapshot of the community that includes upcoming opportunities and can be used as a marketing tool. The Environmental Review is completed on the Shepherdsville Wastewater Treatment Plant Expansion Project, that will increase treatment capacity for the city and better serve the residents and industries. KIPDA also calls for different projects when they are reaching year end, and have additional money left in their revenue. They conducted a study on Greenbriar Road and will now be able to apply for federal grants to get it widened. They have also helped with many different social services throughout the community including counseling, legal assistance, and different public events.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Magistrate Sanders thanked all the First Responders and volunteers in Bullitt County for their hard work during the recent flooding.

Magistrate Logsdon commended everyone on their hard work during the historic flooding. The Detention Center had to move all their inmates, which was a big task that Jailer Whittaker handled well. He also stated that the County will be launching a new text message system called TextMyGov to update the constituents on all county alerts. He encouraged everyone to text 80946, to opt into the alerts.

Magistrate Johnson commended everyone for working well together as a team to tackle the flooding here in Bullitt County.

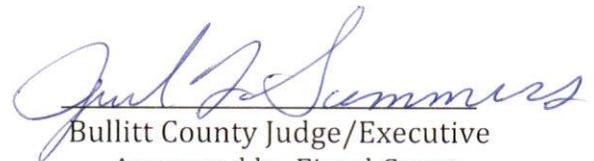

Magistrate Bleemel asked for prayers for the flood victims and their families. He stated that there are also flood damage drop off spots in Shepherdsville and Lebanon Junction.

Judge Summers thanked the First Responders and stated that we had 200 water rescues within the county. He said there were entirely to many volunteers to name but would like to thank for the School Board for allowing flooding victims to take shelter there, Lowe's and Southeast Christian for donating cleaning supplies, Bullitt County Chamber of Commerce and Jim Beam for offering food assistance for volunteers and first responders. At the next Fiscal Court meeting, there will be drone footage and many first responders to recognize.

Mayor Dangerfield of Lebanon Junction thanked everyone for their help and assistance during this horrific time. There was an overwhelming turnout of volunteers and assistance offered and is thankful that Bullitt County stuck together when it mattered most.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business, on motion of Judge Summers, seconded by Esq. Sanders, and following a unanimous vote, the meeting adjourned at 10:40 a.m.
